PATIENT CONSENT FOR USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

With my consent, Shenandoah Women's HealthCare may use and disclose protected health information (PHI) about me to carry out treatment, payment and healthcare operations (TPO). Please refer to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare's Notice of Privacy Practices for a more complete description of such uses and disclosures.

I have the right to review the Notice of Privacy Practices prior to signing this consent.

Shenandoah Women's HealthCare reserves the right to revise its Notice of Privacy Practices at anytime. A revised Notice of Privacy Practices may be obtained by forwarding a written request to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare Privacy Officer at 240 Lucy Drive, Harrisonburg, Va 22801.

With my consent, Shenandoah Women's HealthCare may call my home or other designated location and leave a message on voice mail or in person in reference to any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminders, insurance items and any call pertaining to my clinical care, including laboratory results among others.

With my consent, Shenandoah Women's HealthCare may mail to my home or other designated location any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminder cards and patient statements as long as they are marked Personal and Confidential.

With my consent, Shenandoah Women's HealthCare may e-mail to my home or other designated location any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO, such as appointment reminder cards and patient statements. I have the right to request that Shenandoah Women's HealthCare restrict how it uses or discloses my PHI to carry out TPO.

However, the practice is not required to agree to my requested restrictions, but if it does, it is bound by this agreement.

By signing this form, I am consenting to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare's use and disclosure of my PHI to carry out TPO.

I may revoke my consent in writing except to the extent that the practice has already made disclosures in reliance upon my prior consent. If I do not sign this consent, Shenandoah Women's HealthCare may decline to provide treatment to me.

Other Uses of Medical Information:

Other uses and disclosures of information not covered by this notice will be made only with your written permission. You may revoke that permission in writing at any time. Understand that we are unable to take back any permitted disclosures, and that we are required to retain records of your care.

HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Our Pledge Regarding Medical Information:

We understand that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting your medical information. We create a record of the care you receive at this office to provide you with quality care and to comply with legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we use and disclose your medical information. We also describe your rights and the obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information. We are required by law to make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private; give you this notice of our privacy practices with respect to your medical information; and follow the terms of the current notice.

Who Will Follow This Notice:

This notice describes our office's practices. We may share information with each other for your care.

How We May Use and Disclose Medical Information About You:

For Treatment. We may use information about you to provide you with medical treatment. We may disclose medical information about you to office staff and others involved in your care.

For Payment. We may use and disclose information about you for insurance and payment services.

For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose information about you for practice operations to make sure that you receive quality care and for learning purposes.

Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose information to contact you about appointments.

Phone Messages. We may call and leave messages with whoever answers the phone at your house or on your answering machine unless directed otherwise.

Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose information to tell you about treatment options.

Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may tell you about health-related benefits or services.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in or helps pay for your medical care. We may disclose medical information about you to assist in a disaster relief effort.

As Required By Law. We will disclose information about you when required to do so by law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose information about you to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety, the public or to another person.

Special Situations:

Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may release information to organ banks.

Military and Veterans. We may release information about military personnel as required.

Workers' Compensation. We may release information about you for workers' compensation.

Public Health Risks. We may disclose information about you for public health activities.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose information to a health oversight agency.

Lawsuits and Disputes. We may disclose information about you in response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request.

Law Enforcement. We may release information to a law enforcement official as required by law.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release information to a coroner, medical examiner or funeral director as necessary.

National Security and Intelligence Activities and Protective Services for the President. We may release information about you to authorized federal officials for national security activities.

Inmates. We may release information about inmates to a correctional institution or law enforcement.

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy your medical information. This includes medical and billing records, but does not include psychotherapy notes. You must submit your request in writing to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare. We may charge a fee for the costs of copying. We may deny your request to inspect and copy. You may request that the denial be reviewed. Another neutral health care professional, not the person who denied your request, will review your request and the denial. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend. If you feel that your information is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You may request an amendment as long as the office has this information. Your request must include the reason, be made in writing and submitted to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare. We may deny your request if you ask us to amend information not created by us, unless the person that created the information is no longer available; is not part of the information kept by the practice; is not information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or is accurate and complete.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request a list of the accounting of disclosures we made of your medical information. You must submit your request in writing to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare. Your request must state a time period, not longer than six years, and indicate whether you want the list on paper or electronic. Your first requested list within a year is free.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment, and health care operations or to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care. We are not required to agree to your request. If we agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed in an emergency. You must make your request in writing to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare. You must tell us (1) what information you want to limit (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or location. You must make your request in writing to Shenandoah Women's HealthCare. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We have the right to deny your request.
